Questions and answers

Question	Answer
Who should apply?	CBOs, NPOs, NGOs, community associations, qualifying social enterprises and community-serving organisations responding to evidenced community needs.
Are the response areas a closed list?	No. Other BDP-aligned community-led interventions may apply if they show community need, public benefit, delivery capability and measurable outcomes.

Can unregistered community initiatives apply?	They may apply through a registered fiscal sponsor/lead partner able to contract with the Trust.
What are the grant tiers?	Community Action: R150,000-R349,999. Community Strengthening: R350,000-R749,999. Anchor/Collaborative: R750,000-R1,200,000.
What is a skills-to-income pathway?	A clear link between skills/support and realistic access to employment, self-employment, income-generating work or sustainable livelihood activity.
What are safeguarding arrangements?	Measures to protect children, vulnerable adults or at-risk beneficiaries, including policies, codes of conduct, staff screening, reporting/referral processes, consent and supervision.
What is a related party?	A connected person or organisation that could create a real or perceived conflict of interest, such as family members, affiliated entities or service providers linked to decision-makers.
